About BowiePR

Celebrating the incredible music of the late, great and unique, master of modern pop culture, from Space Oddity through to smash hit Let's Dance to the wonderful The Next Day, internationally-acclaimed British rock frontman Paul Roberts and his band deliver songs from a dozen of David Bowie's classic albums.

Famed for his high-energy performances, Paul brings these fabulous songs to life and with his band of leading British musicians moves seamlessly from one era to the other. It's the kind of evening described by Bowie himself as "a t-shirt and jeans type of show".

The extensive repertoire highlights Bowie's amazing musical depth and knowledge including hits such as: The Jean Genie, China Girl, Rebel Rebel, Sound and Vision, Fame, Suffragette City, Scary Monsters as well as classics Life On Mars, Space Oddity, Lets Dance, Ashes to Ashes and many more.

The show is all about the music & in contrast to a modern day 'tribute'..... no wigs or tired posturing - just a great evening of Bowie's music delivered faithfully & passionately. The reviews and comments endorse that BowiePR is a live experience not to be missed.

Performing the music of David Bowie - Paul Roberts, former lead singer of 'The Stranglers', and his live band.

About Paul Roberts

Having lived in the music world for much of his life, Paul felt dogged by his entirely unintended but uncanny resemblance to Bowie. "I'd recorded Bowie stuff when I was a kid and had a little band together way back for fun really.....but when I started out in the music game I'm sure people thought I was trying to be like him.....nothing could have been further from the truth."

In 2016 Paul was approached to perform some high profile shows in Asia. Having done so, he decided it would be fitting to pay respectful homage to Bowie and keep his music playing.

As far back as 1999, after recording his own version of Lady Grinning Soul, Bowienet actually reviewed the track, calling it "A truly beautiful cover..." - the ultimate flattery. They went on to endorse Paul's work and encouraged fans to follow the shows of his band Soulsec.

Paul was the frontman of The Stranglers between 1990 and 2006, appearing on and co-writing their studio albums Stranglers in the Night, About Time, Written in Red, Coup de Grace and Norfolk Coast.

Since then he has worked on several solo music projects and, as a talented actor, appeared on TV's 'Cranford' and toured in shows including Richard O'Brien's 'Mephistopheles Smith', 'SimplySwing', 'Ovid & The Art of Love' and the self written, sell-out London show 'The Great American Songbook'. All receiving excellent reviews.

Testimonials

'We'd anticipated fireworks on Guy Fawkes Night and Paul Roberts and his band did not disappoint. I was blown away by the sheer number and variety of anthems that captured a feeling of the time and still sound fresh now. The quality of the band performance entranced from beginning to end. They finished with Heroes and as we departed it felt as though the entire audience had morphed into Bowie super-fans, us included'

Vivienne M Clark, Henley Standard

'If you had never seen Bowie live then this is the closest you'll ever get. I was lucky enough to be at the gig at Maesteg town hall on 16/02 and with no exaggeration it was absolutely fantastic.'

Fran Anderson

'Marvellous gig and amazing band, you did the great man proud.'

Tony Paton

'Totally awesome show'

Julie Bailey

'Paul you blew me away last night. I don't know anyone else that could sound and capture the charisma of David Bowie.'

Isabella Maria Rossi

'Paulo that was up there with the best mate. Andy's guitar work was amazing and the rest of the band were top drawer.'

Paul Sumpter

'Brilliant night, superb gig - the whole band are brilliant. Even if you're not a big fan of Bowie, you'll be surprised at how many of his songs you know, I've been unable to stop singing his tunes since last Friday! Overheard a chap in the toilets saying he thought Paul looked and sounded just like the real thing! Go see for yourself.'

Andy Harris

'Paul's stage presence and voice is amazing and did Bowie's work proud.'

Johnnie Holdaway

'A fantastic evening. Brilliant show. Love it. Paul's voice is superb and the whole band rocks'

Ruth Smith

'Loved the gig. Quality musicians with amazing frontman well done'

Harriet Attias

'I closed my eyes during "life on Mars" and I thought it was the man himself. Your musicians were professional and tight. Every Bowie fan needs to see this show.'

Isabella Maria Rossi

'Paul Roberts and his band nailed it! I hope we get to see them again. Please return to The Mill soon'
